THE ADVENTURE BEGINS!

HOYA HOYA TRAIL BLAZERS!

Your son has just bounced out of the Adventure Guides program and you are wondering what's next? You realize the time you spent with your son on campouts has been an awesome experience. You wish there were a next step. Trailblazers is that next step.

The program includes both one day and overnight adventures that take us to some of the most scenic places in Southern California and beyond. Just last year we shot the rapids on the upper Kern, we got wet on the mist trail in Yosemite, we boarded down sand dunes in Death Valley, experienced a free-fall skydive (simulation), and had many dude conversations that come up while taking a real road trip. The three of us have been involved with Adventure Guides for over 25 combined years, and we can honestly say, there hasn't been a time or trip where we didn't build a better bond with our sons and other likeminded dads/sons with Trailblazers.

Even if you have not participated in the Adventure Guides program or outdoor activities with your son yet, you can start with Trailblazers. Every event we have some preplanned activities and meal plans, but you are free to set your own agenda if you want. We have purposefully scheduled both one day and weekend events so you can do them all without back-to-back long drives, or you can do just one. Although we make it easy to join and participate, you supply your own sense of adventure and openness to being amazed with the experience.

Let's go!

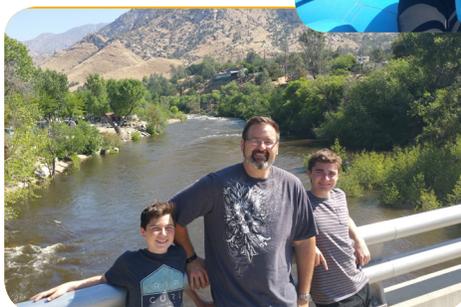

Wait, you have questions? Please feel free to reach out to us and we will be glad to share our thoughts and answer your questions.

Now... LET'S GO!
