

Hey, What do I need to bring CAMPING this weekend?

Cabin Camping & Snow Camp

*You do not need everything on this list!
Use this as a guide; pack according to weather, venue and activities!*

Gear

Bunk Sheet
Sleeping Bags
Extra blankets
Pillows
Camp chairs
Flashlight
Garbage bags
Coffee mug

First Aid Kit
Bandages
Neosporin
Insect repellent
Sunscreen
Lip balm
Tylenol, Motrin
Tecnu (poison oak)
Prescription Meds
Vitamins
Motion Sickness Med.
Kleenex

Miscellaneous

Bicycle & helmet
Fishing gear / license
Walkie Talkies
Cards, board games
Books, music
Frisbee

Snacks & Drinks

It is certainly not required, but you may want to pack a small cooler w/ some snacks, water bottles, etc. for you and your child. This is just in case you need something before a planned meal time.

Personal Items

Appropriate clothing –
plan for variety of weather changes!

Appropriate shoes –
Hiking boots
Sneakers, flip flops
Sweatshirt, jacket
T-shirts
Pants, shorts
Socks, underwear
Long underwear
PJ's
Hats
Sunglasses
Hygiene items:
Toothbrush
Toothpaste
Shampoo / Soap
Comb / Brush
Towel/Wash Cloth
Ear plugs
Bathing suit (if applicable)
Camera
Binoculars
Back pack, day pack
Laundry bag
Rain Gear

Tribal Gear

Firewood for tribe
Firewood for nation fire (check with tribe chief first, wood is often not necessary!)
Tribe banner
Vests
Rounders

Don't forget to bring your maps and trip itinerary!

Snow Camp

Very Important!

If you are going to an area where there is snow or could potentially get snow, please pack accordingly!

Warm sleeping bag
Extra blankets
Warm jacket
Gloves, mittens
Beanie, warm hat
Earmuffs, scarf
Snow shoes
Socks, socks, more socks!
Long underwear
Extra layers of clothing

Snow toys: sleds, inner tubes, toboggans, discs, etc.

Chains for your vehicle!

Check the snow/traffic report before you leave!

