

FAMILY BONUS EVENT FOR ADVENTURE CLUBS

BRING ON THE ADVENTURE! WILDLIFE SLEEPOVER at the SAN DIEGO ZOO

Two Weekend Options: Saturday, October 17 or Saturday, March 5

Sleepover Description & Highlights

This one-night educational outdoor camping adventure is a special opportunity for Adventure Club families!

Your Zoo experience will include:

- Zoo admission (program begins at 4:00 pm on Saturday) and one night Wildlife Sleepover (Saturday night)
- Orientation & activities with Dr. Zoolittle (the Zoo's own zany wildlife researcher)
- Set up your own Zoo tent & camp at the Zoo's own Camp Timbuktu
- Live animal presentations
- Private bus tour
- S'mores around the campfire
- Guided nighttime stroll featuring nocturnal animals
- Breakfast (cereal, fruit, beverages)
- Exclusive (pre-opening) morning animal viewing and admission to the Zoo on Sunday
- The program officially ends at 9:00 am on Sunday morning, but with your hand stamp, you will gain access back into the Zoo. You may stay as long as you want on Sunday!

Amenities

- You will camp in the Zoo-issued tents & sleeping pad (no need to pack a tent)! PLEASE bring your own sleeping bag & pillow.
- Gear truck will haul your belongings to the camping area when you arrive
- Sunday morning breakfast provided.
- Bring your own pre-made "sack" dinner. There are no cooking, bbq, kitchen facilities available to the overnight guests. The food services, restaurants, etc., will be closed at 5:00 pm, so bring everything you need for your dinner meal (including snacks, water, etc.).
