THE ADVENTURE BEGINS! HOYA HOYA TAHOE NATION!

“Live in the sunshine, swim the sea, drink the wild air.”

-Ralph Waldo Emerson

Welcome dads and daughters to Tahoe Nation! On behalf of the Leadership Team, we invite you to join us for an exciting 2016-2017 Season. Adventure Awaits!

We are honored and excited to lead this next chapter for Tahoe Nation. We take over at a time when the Nation is stronger than ever, thanks to the commitment and stewardship of our past Sachems. We especially thank last year's Nation Chief, Randy Yee, and Med Man, Mike Moro, for their invaluable leadership.

Tahoe's new season has so much in store. We have nine campouts on the calendar, from September 2016 through June 2017, including new locations at Lake Hemet, Anza Borrego State Park, and Lansing Ranch. In addition, for the first time in Tahoe Nation history, our dads and daughters get to march in the Encinitas Holiday Parade!

Tahoe Nation is about fun, friendship, and exploration. We prioritize community within our nine tribes and camaraderie between the tribes. Most of all, we cherish time with our daughters in the great outdoors. Tahoe Nation provides opportunities to create lifelong memories with our girls. From kayaking trips around Catalina Island and spelunking mud caves in the desert, to pitching tents on the sand next to the ocean and shooting arrows and paintball guns, you will do adventurous activities with your daughters while spending time getting to know likeminded dads.

For the 2016-2017 Season, we will use the symbol of a compass to help guide us. As a compass provides direction in the great outdoors, we will use it to align our nine campouts. Each major direction on the compass will provide an opportunity for storytelling, skits, and songs around core values, including family, courage, wisdom, integrity, responsibility, service, loyalty, and confidence. We are excited to share this vision with you at our first campout on September 16 at Lake Hemet. Are you ready to create memories with your daughters that will last a lifetime? Register today and join Tahoe Nation for another season of exciting campouts.
